DEDICATION

TO

MR. IRA OERTLI.

In token of our high esteem for his courtly character, his earnest and thorough and sympathetic teaching and his personal interest in each of us, also his invaluable aid in making this book a success, we do respectfully dedicate this volume of the "Tatler."

Foreword

WE MAKE NO APOLOGY for this, our work ; our drawings all the best, and our jokes the funniest and newest. We have learned some from other annuals and now and then have had an idea of our own. We are just as certain as you are that you could have done better with your eyes closed, and you have our sincere sympathy because of the fact that the opportunity for so doing was not presented to you.

We ask but one thing. If any slam herein found hurts, remember that a famous man said: "If the cap fits, wear it."

Alton from an Athletic Standpoint.

The school spirit of Alton High has greatly depreciated, but the athletic ability has increased.

By sufficient support of the members of the school, the Board of Education would be more encouraged, and would no doubt in the near future give us a new Gym, in which athletics could be carried on with much greater interest and then, also, they would be encouraged to give athletics a more sufficient financial basis.

The football team of '17 is undoubtedly the best that A. H. S. has ever produced, and it was largely because of the excellent work of Coach Woods, who was a graduate of Alton High. The reason for this is, that he had all new men to work with, where Coach Brannan had practically all men of foot ball experience.

Because of an unsuitable place to practice the team was greatly handicapped. It is to be hoped that before many more years Alton will have a decent Gym., which will give the players on the team a better chance with schools which have much better practicing facilities.

Although the team was working under difficulty, its success is remarkable. Illinois High School Athletic Association asks that on account of the war that athletics be discontinued. It is for this reason that there will be no interscholastic track meets this year.

Inquisitive: "I hear Mr. Houts electrified his classes?"

Pupil: "Naw, he gassed 'em."

"Some people can't survive going with a fellow."—Margaret Rogerson.

An exception to "Nobody loves a fat man."—Chas. Wightman.

Miss Moffet (in Com. Geog.): "Why is Holland like Germany?"

Deep Voice in Rear: "Because it is a low-lying country, damned on all sides."

(Very good—yes?)

Fascinating Bartender (watching a stout Englishman gulp down his fifth drink): "Gosh, first time I ever saw a British tank in action."

JUNIORS

June Class, 1919

Jack Hind,
President

Edwin Cox,
Vice-President

Helen Wyckoff,
Secretary

JACK HIND

"The best looking boy in school"
Is what the girls all say;
He is also very, very smart—
He recites every blessed day.

HELEN WYCKOFF

Helen is an Upper Alton maid,
She's as bright as she is cute;
No one is able to resist her charms
And she's wild about Physics, too.

BEN VINE

Ben's rather shy with Alton girls.
Though he seems to be bold when away
You ask about a certain basketball game,
'Twas there he was in full sway.

RUTH DALE

She is the best natured girl in school,
If you knew her, you would agree;
She is very small in stature,
And as thin as she can be.

EDNA BAILEY

Everybody likes Edna,
If you knew her, you would, too;
'Cause she's "awful" Industrious,
And happy and cheerful and true.

HAROLD STAFFORD

There's been a Stafford in A. H. S.
Nearly since the first red brick was laid,
And each young lad (of the many ones)
A career of some sort has made.

ADELE HILDEBRAND

Adele is an elocutionist,
She's always talking in school;
She failed in Chemistry this year,
She couldn't learn the rule.

MAGGIE BANTZ

Tho' shy and rather eccentric,
She studies with all her might,
And you ought never try to argue with her,
For she's always in the right.

EDMUND HORD

There was never a boy so good
As Edmund is in school;
But, then, he is rather smart,
Although he never breaks a rule.

LEONARD BROWER

I don't know much about him,
'Ceptin' this—he's awful shy,
But if he ever does get started
Going with a girl—Oh, My!

HARRY WORDEN

Harry, or "Porcupine," as he is called,
Is a happy-go-lucky lad;
Why, nothing whatever as far as I know
Can possibly make him mad.

THELMA SCHMERGE.

A beautiful voice,
And complexion rare;
Oh why should this maid
(f her size beware.

MARK MALEY

Mark thinks he's such a "fusser,"
He "dolls up" every day,
In hopes of seeing Her at least,
Oh well, sometime he may!

OLGA SCHOEFFLER

She's liked by all the maidens,
She's adored by most the boys;
And when it comes to tickling the ivories,
She has more than a plenty of poise.

MARTHA RUSTMANN

She's a fascinating maiden,
And though you'd never call her bold,
The friends that flock around her
Are unnumbered—so I'm told.

RALPH WAGGONER

Ralph is from the country,
But this is no disgrace;
You can have plenty of fun with him,
He surely is a "case."

JOSEPHINE GASCHO

Josephine studies her lessons hard,
And her grades are always high;
In Physics she gets the highest
But German makes her sigh.

EVA EVERSON

Eva likes High School a lot,
She comes from Wood River each day;
She is very fond of music—
You ought to hear her play.

EDWIN COX

Edwin is an artist,
He is popular among the girls;
He likes Irene and Helen,
And all the girls with curls.

ALBERTA BROWN

There are two colors so near alike
They never are apart.
The Brown (you know who it is I mean)
Has captured the Black, Blackheart.

MARGARET PENNING

Peg is a lass of the carefree class,
She cares for nothing but joy,
And the least of all, in this world of care,
Does she care for the troublesome boy.

LOLA WINDSOR

Lola cannot be called a shirk,
For she studies with all her might,
Tho' she could stop now and know more than we,
Still she studies from morn till night.

ARTHUR ZOLL ✓

Olga, Helen, Kathryn and Ruth,
Theo and many more,
All think Arthur's "super-grand,"
And 'tis he that they adore.

VIOLA LUER

Viola worries about the boys,
Especially little Ben Vine,
And wonders if the time will come
When he will say, "Dear, be mine."

LESLIE YUNGCK

(Better Known as "Sleepy Eyes")
When a girl just meets Leslie,
She'll have quite a fall;
For though he looks sleepy,
He is not, at all.

MARTHA WILLIAMS

Her name implies
An old fashioned maid,
And so she remains
Till her headstone is laid.

ISRAEL STREEPER

Izzy's the "means" of the "Tatler" this year.

That is—he's sort of a "base,"
For whenever there was any work to be done.

'Twas Izzy who started the pace.

ADELAIDE TENIS

Though rather small,

She's very quick;

And to all her friends

She's a regular brick.

GLADYS McREYNOLDS

Cicero is Gladys' favorite class,

And Physics is next in line;

She gets good grades in Physics,

And thinks it simply fine.

MARY ELBLE

"Mary, Mary, so dainty and airy,

Why is it you are so shy?"

Because everyone scares me to death

And if I see a boy—Oh my!"

CHARLES BLACK

Chas. or Dinky, as he's called,

Is a good old all-round sport.

But he's gettin' mighty mooney,

Since he began Alberta to court.

RUTH FLORY

Ruth is a general favorite

With her bright and cheerful way;

She studies her lessons once in a while

And sometimes recites during the day

ROSS MILFORD

Poor Ross! he is so handsome!

The girls just sit and rave,

And tho' he pays no heed to them,

They just cannot behave.

LILLIAN WUTZLER

She knows a bit of every thing,

Not much of this or that;

But she's really very popular—

Now, what do you think of that?

JUNIORS

February Class, 1920

Helen Pfeiffer,
President

Helen Corbett,
Vice-President

Elizabeth Chiles,
Secretary

HELEN PFEIFFER

Valedictorian is the very least
That she can hope to be,
How she can get the grades she does
Is more than I can see.

CLARENCE BENSINGER ✓

Clarence is fine at football,
He's swift upon his feet;
His nickname, too, is "Sugar,"
Which shows he's very sweet.

NINA MATHER

Oh, Nina is quite conceited,
About what—we do not know,
For tho' she flourishes letters around,
We doubt if she has a real beau!

ELLA SHAVER

Timid and shy,
Tho' a winsome lass
She works with a will,
I'm sure she'll pass.

ROSS BRATFISCH

Handkerchiefs from Theo, handkerchiefs
from Ruth;
And handkerchiefs from Helen—he takes
them without fear;
Girls, if you want your handkerchiefs,
Be careful when Ross is near.

VELMA DEEDS

She has a very conscious air
Which says, "Am I not pretty?"
And that is why I dedicate
To her this little ditty.

VERENA FLACH

Verena seems afraid of all human beings,
Why, I could not say—
'Tis study from early morn till eve,
And there seems to be no time for play.

ELMER KRUSE

All the girls are wild about Elmer,
And there's a reason why,
Cause Elmer is so countrified,
And so very, very shy.

LUCILE OSBORN

Yes, she is still plodding along,
Some day she hopes to graduate,
But she'll die of old age before that time
If she keeps up her present rate.

LUCY MUNGER

Never out of humor,
Though rather dull(?) in class,
The boys and girls, and teachers, too,
Are bound to like this lass.

PHILIP JACOBY

Isn't he studious looking?
My gracious, how looks deceive!
For the teachers all say he can't behave,
And them we are bound to believe.

THELMA STECK ✓

She's always the spirit of a crowd,
If a boy she'd be a scamp,
But unfortunately she was born a girl,
So she ended by being a "vamp."

HUGH KAUFFMAN

See the happy grin on his face?
He's an extremely dutiful son;
He's his mamma's little gentleman,
And to him she's the "only one."

MOSELLE MORGAN

And here we have a Wood River lass,
A smart one, too, they say;
For no matter how much she goes with
Ralph,
She has her lessons every day.

ROBERT GOULDING

Why the frown on his noble brow,
And the droop of dull care on his face?
Since he's accepted the Manager's job
This look he cannot erase.

GERTRUDE DUGGAN

Gertrude has made many conquests,
And suitors she has by the score;
But as long as Nelson's among them,
The rest she is bound to ignore.

HELEN CORBETT

You may roam over all the world,
Seeking the sweetest of sweets,
But Helen Corbett, you will find,
Has the truest heart that beats.

ELIZABETH CHILES

There is no doubt but what she's liked
By every person you could name,
For the popularity of Betty Chiles
Is not confined to High School fame.

CORDELIA SCHUETTE ✓

Quiet and steadfast,
She'll succeed.
She has ever for all
A kind word or deed.

LUCILLE VAUGHN

Rather attractive but very shy,
She pays no heed to boys;
To her they're very nuisances,
And she hates their racket and noise.

STANLEY JONES

Stanley's a new boy here at school,
Altho' he seems to mix quite well,
If he keeps up at his present rate,
His friends we'll be unable to tell.

VIOLA BIERBAUM

Viola likes to talk to the boys,
She thinks it's lots of fun;
And they also like to talk to her—
Full many a heart she has won.

IRENE MANSOLT

Really quite shy is this young maid,
She looks neither left or right;
If anyone strange were to speak to her
She would probably die of fright.

LORAIN STAMPS

Here is a lass
Who bears the name
Of a "clan" who in sports
Have always won fame.

SERANA DEPENDAHL

If she don't get her lessons,
'Tis not because she doesn't work,
For while there's e'en a small task left,
Her duty Serana can't shirk.

FOOT BALL

Football Team

CAPT. VERNON CHILES, captain of the '17 Champions, proved to be very efficient. He always used good judgment in behalf of the players. He worked hard and developed the greatest team of A. H. S.

JAMES CHILES, the captain's little brother, playing his last year of football, became an all-state guard. We will certainly miss Jim next year.

MARTIN HILE. Hile playing his first and last year at center played a very steady game, always alert. He will prove to be a star some day.

ROBERT BARKER. Bob was the greatest end ever at Alton. Surely if Bob returns he will lead the Ruby Red and Silver Gray next year.

RICHARD CLAYTON. Clayton in playing quarter back showed that he knew his business, for it was his brains that guided us to victory.

LELAND SMITH. When Alton needed a man to open up the opponent's line for a big gain, Smith was the man. We lose our heavy guard this year.

RALPH CANTRELL. Cantrell, the big freshman playing his first year, made an excellent record. We could always rely on Jim for the kick.

PRESTON LEVIS. Levis, also a new man, will probably prove to be Alton's greatest half back in the next two years.

EDWIN STILLWELL. Stillwell, little and light, proved fast at end. He will return next year and will no doubt worry his opponents.

TED OHNSORG, the greatest full back Alton High School has seen in many a day. It is claimed that he was the best open field runner in this part of the State. He saved the day in the East St. Louis game, playing with two carbuncles on his neck. Ted will not return next year.

HAROLD STAMPS, captain of the '16 team, and one of our greatest half-backs, was unable to play the full season on account of injuries which he received.

HARRY SCHAEFER. Schaefer was the man that put the "pep" in the team. "Fast" is his middle name. If Harry doesn't return next year, Alton's '18 team will sure lose its fame.

CLARENCE BENSINGER. "Sugar" playing his first year proved not to be a slacker. He worked hard and won a place on the team.

ARTHUR ZOLL. Zoll, playing his first year of real football, made good. Zoll worked under difficulties. He will return next year and no doubt will worry his opponents.

COACH BRANNAN. One of the best coaches Alton has had.

Football Games

Alton High School opened the football season of 1917 with the following lineup:

Ralph Cantrell.....	Left End
Vernon Chiles (Capt.)..	Left Tackle
Clarence Bensinger.....	Left Guard
Martin Hile.....	Center
James Chiles.....	Right Guard
Leland Smith.....	Right Tackle
Robert Barker.....	Right End
Harry Schaefer.....	Left Half Back
Edward Ohnsorg.....	Full Back
Harold Stamps.....	Right Half Back
Richard Clayton.....	Quarter Back

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29.

Alton High School journeyed to Jacksonville for the first game of the season. This was the first of the long string of victories collected during the season. Alton received the kick off and carried the ball into Jacksonville territory and lost it on a fumble.

Jacksonville then kicked and, through some successful gains by Ohnsorg, Schaefer and Stamps, Alton made a touchdown, Schaefer being crowned with the season's first touchdown. Barker then made a touchdown on a pass from Clayton. Ohnsorg was hurt and forced to retire, Captain Chiles taking full back. Chiles then placed the ball between the goal post after a long end run. Barker passed to Clayton for the fourth touchdown. Jacksonville was helpless before the "never say die" attack of Alton. Ohnsorg, Schaefer, Stamps, V. Chiles and Barker were the individual stars. Score 26—0.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6.

Playing her second game of the season away from home the team went to St. Louis to play McKinley High School, champions of St. Louis Interscholastic League. McKinley made a touchdown after the first four minutes of play; Alton was nervous. After this blow, however, the Alton team braced themselves. Alton gained three yards to McKinley's two, but after that suffered from frequent fumbles. After the ball was carried sixty-five (65) yards to McKinley's 35-yard line, Ohnsorg dropped back to the 30-yard line and kicked the ball between the enemy's goal posts. Final score, 10—3. Ohnsorg, J. Chiles, Smith, Stamps and Barker starred.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13.

The weak little team of Litchfield came to Alton's home grounds to match their strength against that of our team. It was no match! Levis and Zoll alternated at quarterback in place of Clayton, who was out with a twisted knee. Ohnsorg, Schaefer, Barker, Zoll, Stamps and V. Chiles starred in the game. Score, 85—0.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20.

Peoria Manual was quoted as having a reputation as a staunch team, having defeated Jacksonville worse than Alton did. However, Alton's fast back field romped through the Peoria team. Stamps was out with a bad leg and Clayton was forced to retire in the latter part of the game. Walter Woods, our last year beloved coach, who is now in the army, gave the team of Alton an impressive fighting talk. However, the field was wet and soggy and caused the game to be rather slow. Score, 18—6. The stars of that game were J. Chiles, Barker, Cantrill, V. Chiles and Ohnsorg.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27.

Alton secured a game with St. Louis University Freshmen. They were supposed to be a good team. However, they had but two good men and could not stop the lightning runs and passes of Alton. Many believed Alton would meet defeat, but opinions were changed after the first whistle. Touchdowns were made by Ohnsorg, Barker, Clayton and Schaefer. However, Bensinger, J. Chiles, Barker and Smith also worried the "formidable Freshies." Score, 41—6.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3.

The next game we played was with Soldan High School of St. Louis. The writer, being a member of the Alton team, regrets to write about this game. It should be left out, as it was a reversal of the Alton's team attack, also her methods of training. Knowing that a strenuous game was coming, four of the members of the team visited a dance some time between 8 o'clock and 12 M. The game was played in the morning at 10 o'clock. Result: Alton was lucky to come out as well as she did. The Soldan team missed making a touchdown when they had the ball in Alton's five-yard line at the end of each half. Although Ohnsorg, Clayton and Schaefer made many passes yet fifteen fumbles occurred during the game. What did it? You answer it yourself. Score, 14—9. Barker and J. Chiles starred; they didn't attend the dance.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10.

This game was the test game of the season for Alton. Taylorville had not been defeated in three years and when they came to Alton they were after another scalp; they didn't get it. Alton scored first after Ohnsorg intercepted a forward pass on Alton's ten-yard line and ran through the whole Taylorville line for a touchdown, completing the longest run of the season. Goal was kicked. Taylorville often ripped holes in the Alton line, but could not make a touchdown until the final quarter. However, Alton had V. Chiles and Stamps and Barker gracing the side lines. The game ended in a tie—7-7—and also tied up the Central Illinois championship. Ohnsorg, J. Chiles and Smith were stars of this battle.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17.

So! we were to play a team claiming the Southern Illinois championship, having lost one game, that going to Central High of St. Louis on the same day that McKinley defeated Alton. East St. Louis came one hundred strong, prepared to defeat her old rival, who had defeated her in basket ball and base ball. They started in a flash and made a touchdown in the first period. Alton had no pep. James Coleman gave the team a talk and told us we were "yellow." We wanted to fight him. Ohnsorg was placed at full back with a bandaged neck with carbuncles and the men went back for the second half with blood in their eye. The rest went easy. After several long runs by the back field, Ohnsorg carried the ball over the line. East St. Louis received the kick-off with their minds set upon another touchdown. However, J. Chiles, Smith, Bensinger, Barker and Cantrell, also Zoll, "busted" play after play and East St. Louis kicked. Then Alton duplicated the former stunt and Ohnsorg again carried the ball to the country station. East St. Louis received the kick and took the ball to the 30-yard line by a pass from Ohnsorg to Clayton. Ohnsorg drop kicked goal. Score, 15—7. J. Chiles, Ohnsorg, Schaefer and Barker starred. V. Chiles and Stamps graced the side lines on account of injuries.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29.

Belleville brought her "would-be" football team to Alton to make an effort to defeat the Alton team. Many of the substitutes played in this game. Stillwell and Caywood played well, each making a touchdown. However, the team used every player which they had. Successive runs by Ohnsorg, Schaefer, Cantrell, V. Chiles and Barker broke up the Belleville team. Belleville emerged from this battle with the very short end of the score. Score, 51—0.

THURSDAY, THANKSGIVING DAY, NOVEMBER 29.

Beardstown had a team which crumpled during this game as much as Belleville. No competition was shown during the rainy day, as Beardstown never got the ball near the Alton 20-yard line. Schaefer, Ohnsorg, Stamps, Barker, Smith, J. Chiles and Bensinger were the individual stars. Final score, 34—0.

'17-'18 Basketball Season

Alton High School '17-'18 basket ball season was the most successful we have had for many years. Jerseyville was defeated in our opening game. Granite City was defeated twice, the first time such a feat has been accomplished in the history of the school. Principia Military Academy, which twice defeated Western, and many of the St. Louis High Schools, was defeated on their own floor. Alton went to the district tournament at Centralia with a good chance to reach the finals, but on account of the Exemption Board using the Y. M. Gymnasium, Alton did not get enough practice to keep in the best of trim. This, combined with "Jim" Cantrell's measles, slowed the team down. Sandoval was defeated in the first game, which placed us against Granite, whom we had already conquered twice.

The game was all Granite's for the first half, Alton being unable to score regularly, although they had the ball in their possession most of the time. The half ended with a score of 29 to 11 in Granite's favor. In the second half Alton played in true style and scored seventeen points to Granite's two, Granite winning 28 to 31. Alton was thus eliminated and Granite was defeated in the finals by Centralia. (Alton must have a Gymnasium if we ever expect to win a State tournament).

The team, although lacking in individual stars, played a hard, consistent game. Everyone worked for the good of the team. Captain "Jim" Chiles proved a most valuable leader, "Jim's" grin and "pep" were everywhere; when it was necessary for Alton to score a few points he would leave his guard position and get a few baskets. When the other team got dangerous, he would break up their play. Chiles lead the team in scoring and was without doubt the most dependable man on the squad. We will sure miss "Jim" next year. Clayton at the other guard played a heavy, consistent game. Wells, Black and Stillwell all played steady games at forward and will be back next year. Cantrell outjumped every center he met and as a standing guard is hard to beat. We expect much from "Jimmy" in the next three years.

Girls' Basket Ball Season

The girls' basket ball season started with a great deal of interest on the part of all the girls and it was apparent from the first that the season would be a successful one.

The teams were picked after many practice games as follows:

FRESHMEN.

- F. Eunice Vine (Captain)
- F. Thelma Eppel
- F. Olga Ott
- C. Edith Day
- G. Gladys Oddy
- G. Helen Jun
- G. Ruth Joesting

SOPHOMORES.

- F. Anna Cobeck (Captain)
- F. Hazel Challacombe
- F. Bessie Dykeman
- C. Margaret Moran
- G. Elizabeth Gissal
- G. Meta Beiser
- G. Bernice Nunn

JUNIORS.

- F. Verna Foreman (Captain)
- F. Lucy Munger
- F. Elsie Schmoeller
- C. Helen Pfeiffer
- C. Elizabeth Chiles
- G. Loraine Stamps
- G. Ruth Flory
- G. Viola Bierbaum

SENIORS.

- F. Gertrude Luer
- F. Helen Rose
- F. Margaret Rogerson
- C. Harrie Downs (Captain)
- G. Gladys Garstang
- G. Edna McClure
- G. Katherine Moorhead

Mr. Richardson gave his consent for the public to attend the class games, so the boys furnished an appreciative audience.

The games were played, and at the last the championship rested between the Juniors and the Seniors. The Juniors were confident of winning, because after diligent practice and hard work they thought they could win from their less efficient opponents, who had practiced very little and had no regular team during all the games.

This game was perhaps the most surprising of the games. It was a hard fight from the first and when time was called the score was 9-12 in favor of the Seniors. This gave them the championship.

Mr. Brannan refereed this game, as Miss Peck was taken sick, and could not attend. He deserves much credit, and his work was greatly appreciated by the girls.

Eunice Vine, captain of the Freshmen team, developed into a gritty little player, and will be an efficient member of teams to come.

Anna Cobeck, the Sophs' captain, has the honor of being an excellent player at any position on the team.

Verna Foreman, the Juniors' captain, kept her reputation of being one of the best forwards of the school.

The Senior captain needs no introduction. Harrie Downs was one of their best players, and the way she and Helen Pfeiffer and Betty Chiles fought was one of the comical features of their game.

A spread was held after the last game, which was enjoyed by the girls and some boys???? The only thing that kept it from being a success was the absence of Miss Peck. We hope that the coaching of these teams will not affect her so hereafter.

"Too bad, Mr. Rowe left before I could completely 'vamp' him."—Nina Herrick.

"A dashing damsel! and loved by all."—Edna McClure.

"A prince to all! (Maybe)—Henry Wade.

"A regular lodestone when it comes to fellows."—Thelma Eppel.

"Oh—why don't girls like farmers"?—Elmer Kruse.

"Smart—not brainy."—Clement Meriwether.

Modern History Question: "What law made the girls all lame on or about the 31st of March?"

Mr. Oertli: "Give answer to the second problem."

Some Smart Pupil: "Seven and a half."

Harley C.: "Gimme the deal."

(Why, Harley, of what are you thinking.)

Class Basket Ball

Class basket ball opened Tuesday, Dec. 4th, 1917, with the following schedule:

Seniors vs. Sophomores
Juniors vs. Freshmen.

As every one expected, the Seniors and Juniors won.

On Wednesday the Seniors met the Freshies and the Juniors the Sophs. The Seniors put their second team in the first half, but the Freshmen were having things their own way, so the first team went in and cleaned things up. The Junior and the Sophomore game was hard fought from start to finish. Wells was starring for the Sophs and Stafford for the Juniors.

The Juniors were defeated by the Seniors and the Freshmen by the Sophs. (The Juniors held their own in their game.)

The games closed with the Seniors holding the championship and the Juniors second, Sophs third, and the Freshmen fourth place.

The class captains were:

Seniors.....	James Chiles
Juniors	Arthur Zoll
Sophomores.....	T. Wells
Freshmen.....	Oswald McManis

"As 'Tommy' says, have you no clothes brush?"—Hugh Kauffman.

One Liberty Bond

During the campaign for the sale of Liberty Bonds in Alton during the second issue, two Four-Minute Men were selling bonds in the lobby of a moving picture theater. During the performance one of the men made a speech urging the people to purchase the bonds and the sale in the lobby was gratifying.

Two small boys, who might be called urchins, were standing beside the table at which the man taking the subscriptions sat. They stood there for fully an hour and watched intently as each bond was sold. One man, well dressed, walked to the table and briskly inquired:

"Have you the bond there? I mean the bond itself."

He was told that no bonds were available but that arrangements would be made with any bank he chose and the bond would be forwarded to him later.

"No, I want the bond. If you had them here I would buy a hundred-dollar one and pay cash for it, but I can't wait." He further explained that he was leaving the city that night for St. Louis, his home. He walked off in the same brisk manner.

The two little fellows continued to look and stood wide-eyed as the stranger talked of a sum to great as a hundred dollars.

Finally the two had a consultation and the larger came to the table and said:

"Say, Mister, ye don't have to pay for a bond all at once, do you?"

He was told that a bond could be bought on the installment plan.

"And I pay a dollar now, and a dollar a week?"

The Four-Minute Man gave an affirmative reply.

"Well, you see, Mister, I have to work and keep my mother and little brother. My mother works too, but she don't make as much as I do." (Here the little fellow's chest swelled.)

"So if I get sick I don't have to keep payin' do I?"

He was told no, and walked off with his brother and a consultaion followed.

Presently the two boys came back and watched some more. Eventually the larger of the two turned to his brother and said:

"Jim, lend me two-bits, I only got seventy-five, and I'll buy a bond." The brother advanced the twenty-five cents and the bond was subscribed for, and the two youngsters walked off proudly.

When the youngsters reached home they broke the news to their widowed mother who began to wonder where the dollar each week was coming from. When the two boys promised to dispense with their weekly moving picture show the mother decided there was something she could do without so they planned and planned and the bond was paid for.

Did the stranger who wanted to pay cash in such a hurry buy? We wonder.

Two Sammies lay in their dugout, "Somewhere in France." They were, in reality, in a southeast corner of the Toul sector. A few days before they had partaken, successfully, in the first raid upon German trenches. One of them, an Irish-American lad from New England, was wounded later by a piece of shrapnel. He lay in almost constant pain. His companion, a Yankee from an Eastern state, was doing all in his power for the wounded soldier of democracy, and at the same time keep his eye on the enemy trenches "just across."

They were some distance from the supply depot, and a peculiar circumstance made it virtually impossible, except at the cost of their lives, for them to reach the depot. Also their ammunition was running low. There was not much ammunition at the supply depot. It was during the early days and things were not yet running on the smooth American scale so well known.

At last the ammunition came, with it the news of the success of the Liberty Loans back home. The boys called it Liberty Loan Ammunition.

Ammunition was taken to the dugout where the wounded boy lay. Things were working better now and at nightfall he was to be taken to the hospital. This cheered them up considerably.

Along in the afternoon the attack came. Shielded by a death-dealing barrage fire the enemy infantry charged. They were repelled three times and three times they charged again, always heralded by that awful barrage fire, blinding, blood curdling, deathly.

The enemy finally reached the American trenches. Two of them came over the top of the wounded boy's dugout. They were killed. Killed with the new ammunition, the Liberty Bond ammunition. Many were killed in other trenches and the Germans finally retired, leaving many dead and wounded behind them.

The wounded boy from New England, looking at his pal, said in low tones: "God bless the buyer of the Liberty Bond that bought this ammunition."

* * *

It may have been the bond of the poorly clad youngster that saved the life of those boys, each some "mother's son." The mother and her two sons "pinched" by giving till it hurt, but they saved a life, they helped in the struggle for democracy.

With this spirit prevailing, the same spirit over here and "over there," the outcome of the war cannot be in doubt.

Debate

On November 8, 1917, the two debating teams were chosen for the year '17-18. There was a great deal of competition among the aspirants for a place. There were ten candidates and six places.

After the preliminaries the teams worked in earnest and the motto was, "We Will Win."

East St. Louis High School presented the question to Alton this year. Resolved, "That Ireland should be granted its independence." Alton, keeping up to her motto, was ready by the Christmas holidays for the debate, which was to be held on January 16, 1918. During the holidays, a letter was received from the East Side principal stating that his teams refused to debate the question. Evidently they were not ready, although they had presented the question. 'Think of it, and then not being ready!

In his letter he stated that the question was unpatriotic. When the news was sent to the home teams, they were "disgusted" with the East Side.

On the morning of January 17, 1918, Miss Ferguson went before the Assembly and made a very fine talk, stating that East St. Louis had forfeited the debate and that the two teams were entitled to their letters. The teams were:

Affirmative: Mary Belle Wimber, Captain; Lester Culp, Israel Streeper.

Negative: Clement Meriwether, Captain; Robert Goulding, Wilford Queen.

"Verily, he is well nick-named."—"Art" Zoll.

"Little children should be seen—not heard" (coming!)—Edwin Cox and Lester Culp.

"The only difference between Harley and Vernon Castle is their dancing."

AFFIRMATIVE DEBATING TEAM.

Harold Stafford, Captain

William Dehner

Lucile Osborn

On the evening of April 25th, the debate between the affirmative team of Alton High and the negative team of Jerseyville took place at the High School Auditorium. There was a small number present, but they made up in enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers. The judges were Rev. Mr. Wakefield and E. P. Ropiequet of East St. Louis, and Prof. Boehm of Kirkwood (Mo.) High School. The time-keepers were Mr. Baldwin of Jerseyville and Mr. Oertli of Alton.

The debate was opened by Harold Stafford for the affirmative with a good telling speech in favor of the government ownership of railroads. This was answered by a speaker on the negative from Jerseyville. Wilford Queen spoke next on the affirmative, with fine effort. He was answered by the next speaker on Jerseyville's side. The last speech on the affirmative was well given by Lucile Osborn, followed by the last speech on negative. After a spirited rebuttal on both sides, the decision of the judges was given, two for the affirmative and one for the negative. The debate was well given on both sides and the decision was generally satisfactory.

"Patriotic parents name baby 'Liberty Bond.'"—Chicago Journal.
First, last and only bond which takes 21 years to mature.

NEGATIVE DEBATING TEAM.

Ben Vine, Captain

Clement Meriwether

Palmer Hancock

The Alton Negative Team, consisting of Ben Vine, Captain; E. Clement Meriwether, and Palmer Hancock, journeyed to Jerseyville on the afternoon of April 25. Alton went under the leadership of Mr. L. S. Haight. The journey was made on a privately owned railroad. The team left with high hopes which were lowered only when the judges' decisions were opened. All who heard the debate said the teams were closely matched, but Alton had all the breaks against them and also being on foreign grounds, lost by a vote of 2 for the affirmative and 1 for the negative.

In the evening Captain Vine, speaking first for Alton, showed that government ownership is unnecessary, unwise, and impracticable. His delivery was good and although troubled by a severe cold made a good impression. On account of his good work this year, next year he will be a good man for either team.

Meriwether, the only experienced man on the team, showed his usual ability in debating and also showed in a forcible manner the undesirable features of government ownership. We regret exceedingly that Meriwether graduates this year and his absence will be very noticeable on the debating teams next year.

Hancock closed the negative argument in a splendid manner. Although inexperienced he spoke with ease and had good delivery. He showed government ownership has only partially succeeded, and where it has been tried and conditions favoring government ownership abroad are lacking here. With two more years before him, Hancock will make a very brilliant debater.

Patrons' Night

On Friday, April 27, the annual Patrons' Night was observed. An estimate of about 2,000 people came to see the exhibits of the Manual Training Department and the Drawing Classes. The Manual Training Department had an extraordinary showing of buffets, dressing tables, writing desks, library tables, cedar chests, and numerous other smaller articles. The Drawing Department had a very fine exhibit from the Grades and High School. A number of working drawings from the Mechanical Drawing Department were shown. About 8:30 o'clock the following program was given:

Music.....America and the Flag
Girls' Chorus.

Recitation.....Betsy Ross's Story of the Flag
Adele Hildebrand.

Harp Solo—
Miss Evelyn Shedd.

Address.....“The Principles of Prussianism”
Rev. W. T. Hanstzche.

Music.....Illinois
Girls' Chorus.

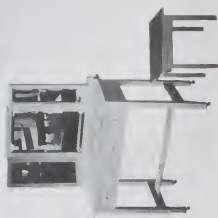

TWIN NAMES.

Some of the Historic Sites and Homes of Alton

Prepared by Ninian Edwards Chapter, D. A. R.

The original site of Alton, laid out in 1817 by Col. Rufus Easton, extended from Piasa street on the west to Henry on the east, and from the river to Ninth street on the north.

1. "Lovers' Leap," on the bluff opposite foot of Summit street, famed in Indian legend.

2. "Piasa Bird," Indian painting, was depicted on face of bluff about 150 feet west of Lovers' Leap. Long since blasted away. First mentioned in history by Marquette in 1673.

3. Penitentiary plat, site of first State prison in Illinois; erected 1827; military prison during civil war.

4. Sparks' mill occupies site of warehouse where E. P. Lovejoy was killed in pro-slavery riot of Nov. 7, 1837.

5. The buildings on Second street owned by L. Stiritz and Melling & Gaskins Printing Co. occupy site of Lovejoy's printing office.

6. Lincoln Hotel on State street, formerly the Franklin House, was Lincoln's headquarters at time of Lincoln-Douglas debate, Oct. 15, 1858.

7. City Hall, erected 1858. The Lincoln-Douglas debate took place on east front of this building, Oct. 15, 1858. Marked by bronze tablet.

8. Illinois Corrugated Paper Co. is located on site of old Alton House, headquarters of Douglas on date of debate.

9. Stanford building, corner Second and Alby, occupies site of hall where first lodge of I. O. O. F. in Illinois was organized in 1837.

10. Vacant lot adjoining Times Building on Second street was site of first brick building erected in Alton proper in 1832. Birth-place of Edward P. Wade, President Alton National Bank.

11. Building on east side of Market street, two doors north of Third, is oldest brick building now standing in Alton proper; erected 1833.

12. Spring at corner Second and Spring streets, now covered over, was scene in 1811 of killing of a settler named Price and wounding of his son, who escaped, by Indian war party. This opened the border warfare of 1812. Indians were pursued to the mouth of the Illinois by Rangers.

13. Hunter's Tavern, corner of Second and Central avenue, erected by Maj. C. W. Hunter in 1819, is oldest building now standing in what is now Alton.

14. First lime burned in Alton was in quarry, corner Third and Pear streets, about 1818.

15. City Cemetery. Site of Lovejoy monument, erected by State of Illinois and citizens of Alton, 1896-7. Cost, $30,000.

16. Frame tenement on west side Cherry street, between Second and Third, occupies site of former home of Lovejoy.

17. Milton, the vanished village, was located on Wood River at present bridge crossing; founded about 1816. At one time, 1819, boasted a hotel, two stores, saw mill, grist mill and distillery. Most of early inhabitants died of malaria, and are buried in adjacent hill-side cemetery.

18. Vaughn cemetery, one mile east of East Alton, where victims of Wood River massacre of July 10, 1814, were buried.

19. Mouth of Wood River. Site of camp of Lewis and Clark exploring expedition in 1803-4, preparatory to ascending Missouri river. There was a settlement here, known as Dubois (the woods), where Gen. Zebulon M. Pike narrowly escaped assassination by Indians in 1806.

20. Homestead of Lyman Trumbull, U. S. Senator for 18 years, corner of Henry and Union streets, now owned by H. J. Bowman.

21. Edwards Homestead, Liberty street, nearly opposite Twelfth, erected by Hon. Cyrus Edwards in 1837.

22. Homestead of David J. Baker, U. S. Senator, Clement Place, removed there from Liberty street.

23. In Upper Alton home of Dr. Erastus Brown, first physician there, was on east side Washington avenue, between Edwards and Brown street; was living there in 1821. Brown street was named after him.

24. Presbyterian Church, College avenue, occupied site of church destroyed by fire in 1858. Lovejoy was pastor, or supply, of this church at time of death. Here he made his last memorable address in defense of his principles.

25. Stone building on College avenue, diagonally opposite Presbyterian Church. Here was organized the first anti-slavery society in Illinois, Oct. 27, 1837; it was then the residence of Rev. T. B. Hurlbut; now owned by Dr. Isaac Moore.

26. Shurtleff College, pioneer College of Illinois, founded at Rock Spring, 1827, removed to Upper Alton 1832.

27. Wood River Fort, on Gill farm, two miles east of Upper Alton; war of 1812.

28. Monument on Fosterburg road, two miles northeast of Upper Alton, erected by descendants of Capt. Abel Moore, in memory of the victims of the Wood River massacre of July 10, 1814. Dedicated Sept. 11, 1910.

29. Rock Spring Park, rendezvous of Illinois State troops preparatory to departure for Mexican war, 1846-7.

30. State House Square, corner Central and College avenues, donated to State of Illinois in expectation of location there of State Capitol when seat of government was removed from Vandalia.

31. Staunton street, from College avenue west, was cleared of timber by Gov. John M. Palmer and his brother when the former was a student at Shurtleff College.

32. Confederate Monument at North Alton was erected by the U. S. Government in memory of the 1354 Southern soldiers who died in Alton military prison during the Civil War. The handsome entrance was donated by the Sam Davis Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy.

33. Elmhurst, State street, homestead of Mrs. A. K. Root. On this tract stood the home of Gen. James Semple, United States Senator.

34. Monticello Seminary, at Godfrey, five miles from Alton. Founded by Benjamin Godfrey, 1835. Oldest seminary for young ladies in the West.

35. The first public school building erected in Alton was on the square now occupied by Lincoln School. It was a one-story, one-room brick building, erected in 1845, on land deeded to the city at a nominal price by Judge Nathaniel Pope.

Lovers must have leave to speak.—Tatler Board.

Speak low if you speak love.—Robert Goulding.

A minister, but yet a man.—Archie Stahl.

CALENDAR

- Oct. 3—Harriet R. writes a speech and asks the girls to knit for the boys at the front while she is knitting a scarf for herself. Ah, yes; perhaps she is making preparations to leave herself. Oh, what a husky looking nurse!
- Oct. 4—Mrs. Dorsey gives a little talk on food conservation, but not many students wanted it to soak in. Less eats. It can't be done.
- Oct. 5—More Patriotism. Pepper yelling at noon. (Caused by good lunches.)
- Oct. 8—Rotten yelling, after wonderful game with McKinley High.
- Oct. 9—Elmer Kruse bushingly peeps into Assembly Room, too bashful to enter.
- Oct. 10—"Rosie" Milford, taking an Algebra test in the Assembly room, raised his hand and said out loud: "What should we do with the twelfth one?"
- Oct. 11—Boo! Weather much colder.
- Oct. 12—Some of the little boys thought that it was necessary to test the new fire escape, so they played catch on it and gave the report as it being very strong.
- Oct. 13—Ah, ha! Members of Tatler Board hold their first meeting.
- Oct. 16—Manager Rowe and Coach Brannan ran away with Eskimos of Woodriver flier.
- Oct. 17—Mr. Haight states it is better to be broke than cracked.
- Oct. 22—Again we gained a victory Saturday. We defeated Peoria, 18—6.
- Oct. 22—Mr. H. makes a very good speech in regard to some of the girls not sticking to our school, but keeping the path warm up to W. M. A. They do not charge any admission to their games up there and Mr. H. suggested the manager give each one of the five girls that went up to W. M. A. a complimentary ticket. Now, just what is the attraction up there? (Wonder.)
- Oct. 23—Bob G. makes his first speech in the Assembly Room in regard to the night at the Princess, which was October 26th.
- Oct. 26—L. Bissinger was caught reading "The Revelations of a Wife." She must think it a very good policy to be prepared. But who is he?
- Oct. 30—M. Ruebel to Ed Levis: "Edward, dear, I'm 18 now, you know."
- Nov. 1—Every one is dull and gloomy after three days' vacation.
- Nov. 1—Last Saturday we played St. Louis U. Freshmen and beat them as usual, 41—7.
- Nov. 2—Mr. H. stubbed his toe on the platform, but all was done very gracefully.
- Nov. 2—Mr. Eden gave very fine talk on Home Guards. He was assisted by Mr. E. L. Rose.

- Nov. 3—Miss Lowry to 3-1 English class: "Next Thursday we will have Bacon the whole period." Isn't she extravagant—not at all conserving.
- Nov. 4—Gertrude D.: "Oh, kid, I hate this cold weather—it makes my nose so red."
- Nov. 6—Harrison Wood, another member of the weak-kneed club, met his doom on the steps north of the Assembly Room. Pupils are urged to donate onions to this club to make them stronger.
- Nov. 6—"Any truth in the report that Miss Shedd eloped with a boarder?" "No, it was only a roomer."
- Nov. 9—Miss Gilham rushed into assembly room, almost hysterical. "I've lost my hearing," she shouted. "You have?" B. C. shouted back. "How do you know?" "See that man out there playing that hand organ? Well, I can't hear a note," and she wept afresh. "That's a moving picture photographer at work," laughed B. C.
- Nov. 12—Miss Moffett is very good looking, as everyone knows, and they also know the beauty of Mr. Rowe. Well, they were very devoted to each other and as they sat and held hands and watched the Alton-Taylorville game at the Three-Eye League park, Mr. Rowe says: "Ah, there is Jim Chiles—he's a bird; and there is Barker, our end man—he'll be our best man before long." Miss Moffett gasped: "Well, I—I guess he'll be all right, but this is so sudden."
- Nov. 12—Ah, ha! We held Taylorville 7—7.
- Nov. 13—Mr. R. A. Haight gave a very interesting talk on the history of the Football in Alton High. He stated that the team is the best that Alton has ever seen or probably will see.
- Nov. 15—Manager Rowe makes plea for all football men to come out and practice for the East St. Louis game.
- Nov. 20—We defeated the Southern Illinois champs, East St. Louis, 15—7.
- Nov. 20—Mr. Houts makes a good speech in regard to East St. Louis game and to the attendance of the game. He stated that it should be called the city team instead of the Alton High team, because there were more town people attended the games than there were High School students.
- Nov. 21—First group of pictures were taken for The Tatler.
- Nov. 22—Again we celebrated for Saturday's game with Belleville. All boys interested in good looking girls should turn out at this game. Saying lot for Alton GIRLS.
- Nov. 23—Our second team did some honorable work. It defeated Belleville, 51—0.
- Nov. 25—Mr. Oertli takes fatal step at last. The solemn occasion took place Saturday, November 23d. He and his loving bride eloped to St. Louis and were married. Doesn't that sound thrilling? But don't get excited, girls—it's all a mistake.
- Nov. 25—Belleville's team got here all right, but it was too cold to bring their much-talked-of girls.
- Nov. 26—Tatler pictures on a stand-still—too dark to take them.
- Nov. 26—Tomorrow, Turkey Day. The last game of the season will be played with Beardstown. Stiff game expected, but we can beat 'em.

- Nov. 27—Mr. L. S. H. in Modern History class: "Ah, never in the history of Alton High have pupils made such brilliant remarks." (He's not a bit sarcastic.)
- Nov. 27—No more school till Monday.
- Dec. 3—Final celebration of football season. Big parade around assembly room up and down each aisle. Elaborate speeches made by each member of the team. Stamps suggests a banquet would be pretty good. But no; it seems that no one heard his suggestion.
- Dec. 4—Class basket-ball begins. Seniors beat Sophs., 31—4. Juniors beat Freshies, 43—4.
- Dec. 5—Class celebrations. Each class to itself. The Sophs. and the Freshies did not take part. Other class games at 3:30. Seniors vs. Freshmen. Juniors vs. Sophs.
- Dec. 5—Tatler on a standstill. No more pictures until after Xmas. So the boss says.
- Dec. 6—Again the honorable Juniors won from the Sophs., 16—30. Seniors, 24; Freshies, 14.
- Dec. 7—Juniors beat Seniors to yelling and they got sore about it.
- Dec. 7—Sad, but true. Seniors won class championship by score of 24—11. Juniors put up good fight.
- Dec. 8—Miss Ferguson, although not captain of the Faculty team, challenged the Seniors for a game Monday at 4:00 o'clock. Dick C. got up and said they would gladly accept the challenge. Only time can tell what fate will come.
- Dec. 10—Everybody almost frozen to death, but thawed out a little after noon.
- Dec. 11—Faculty played the Seniors: Faculty, 20; Seniors, 17.
- Dec. 12—Girls' basket ball season opens. Many Sophs. and Freshies are out to practice.
- Dec. 13—Miss Lowry invests more money, but this time on a larger pair of goggles. How could she do it?
- Dec. 13—Several signs tacked up in girls' dressing room by some unknown kill-joy. "No loud talking" and "No shouting allowed."
- Dec. 14—Mr. Giberson gave very fine talk on Red Cross. Alton High is taking a helping hand and expects to be very successful.
- Dec. 17—Sad, but true—the snow is melting.
- Dec. 18—Faculty play the 'varsity team in basket-ball.
- Dec. 19—Faculty are a bunch of soreheads because they got beat by the 'varsity team, 19—12.
- Dec. 20—Who would have ever thought that Bill Munger would get a haircut? But he did.
- Dec. 21—Very busy getting donations for the poor of Alton.
- Dec. 22—Someone being very thoughtful gave Mr. L. S. H. a bottle of hair tonic for Xmas.
- Dec. 22—Great victory over Jerseyville in basket-ball, 32—29.
- Dec. 23—No more school till January 3d. Postponed till January 7th. Total contribution of Alton High to the poor, $114.70.

- Jan. 7—After an extended Xmas vacation, everyone tries to get down to work again. No one else being generous enough to get the smallpox, we all have to suffer.
- Jan. 8—Ralph Volz sleeps in assembly room. More vacation wanted.
- Jan. 9—Lucile Osborn, deeply in thought about the boys, falls over a bucket that was standing in the hall. Almost demolishing the bucket, and hurt Mr. Lorch's feelings.
- Jan. 10—Mr. Houts hardly recognized when he got up to make a speech in regard to military training. Many boys are expected to join.
- Jan. 10—Floyd S. tried to skate across the floor of the assembly room, but it did not work.
- Jan. 11—Some blizzard. Everybody is three-fourths frozen.
- Jan. 14—A. H. S. defeats the Alumni, 33—32.
- Jan. 14—Mr. H. to Helen Miller: "Helen, what are you chewing?" "Nothing, Mr. H." Margaret Fitzgerald chiming in: "Ah, she is chewing her cud."
- Jan. 16—Edward Levis becomes top-heavy and falls over during opening exercises.
- Jan. 16—Ted Franke rescues a girl from falling downstairs. How peacefully she fell into his arms.
- Jan. 18—Many sad looking students. Reports of finals given out.
- Jan. 28—Ah, ha! We beat Edwardsville, 29—6. My, but they were surprised.
- Jan. 29—Everyone in motion fixing out program cards.
- Feb. 1—Aga'n the girls of A. H. S. partake in the legal holiday of the season—kid day. Boys did not partake.
- Feb. 3 }
Feb. 4 } Dr. Homer gave interesting series of talks to the girls.
Feb. 5 }
- Feb. 4—Mr. Rowe gives farewell talk.
- Feb. 4—Elizabeth Chiles invents a new axiom in Geometry, "Because it was proved yesterday."
- Feb. 11—Mr. L. S. H. makes a plea for the students of A. H. S. to buy Thrift Stamps, also Smileage Books for the soldiers in camp.
- Feb. 14—"Unknown" put an alarm clock in the assembly room, and at 1:20 it went off. The teachers all thought it was the S'ignal.
- Feb. 22—George Washington program—short, but snappy.
- March 18—Celebrations of the Girls' Basket-Ball season. Seniors vs. Juniors, 12—9. Showing that the Seniors were champs by three points.
- March 18—Dell Brunner to Elmer Kruse: "Dimples, dear, how are you this morning?"
- March 18—New visitor at school, old and gray, reading with a magnifying glass. Guess the School Board will put her on with the faculty.

THEY ALL LOOK THE PART.

"I couldn't serve as a juror, Judge. One look at that fellow convinces me he's guilty."

"Sh-h—, that's the attorney for the State."

"No use, girls, Tiny's got him." "Who?" "Ted."

In Modern History (Ross Milford to Ted Franke): "Sit down, you've said your nickel's worth."

Estelle Lynn (in Physics): "At what temperature can you boil eggs on ice?"

Mr. Houts: "It's impossible."

Nov. 27, 1917. Miss Jepson must have kept late hours last night, because she went to sleep while giving a test.

L. H. "Where was the Naval battle fought?"

Harold Stamps: "On the water, of course."

Tiny Clyne, as David Magill passes down aisle: "Oh, here comes that dear little boy!"

TED TO TINY.

"What you say, goes," Ted sadly said,

With eyes and heart aflame,

"Tiny" glanced up at the parlor clock,

And quickly spoke his name.

First Pupil: "Why is it no one laughs at L. S.'s jokes anymore?"

Second Pupil: "Well, I guess it's because they respect old age."

Izzy: "I want a funny picture for this joke."

Art Zoll: "That's what I'm here for."

Izzy: "I know, but we don't use photographs."

Helen W. "You drive awfully fast, don't you?"

Izzy: "Yes, I hit seventy yesterday."

Helen W.: "Did you kill any of them?"

Bare are the stretching limbs of the trees—

The fields be naked, unfrocked,

The shrubs stand bare to the insolent breeze,

No wonder the corn is shocked!

Jack Vann is an awful kidder—he will even string a mandolin.

"What was the price of a Dame's downfall?" "One bone."

Thelma is an attractive girl as she knits, and Leland grew more and more conscious of the fact, but her fleeting hands raveled so fast with the colored yarns that his vision became blurred and he blurted out: "Say, if I look at you much longer, Steck, I'll get cross-eyed."

Are they still each other's pet affinity? Nit! Nit!

Mark Maley had Nina Herrick out. The next day at school when he speaks, she cries out angrily: "I should think you'd be ashamed to look me in the face or to speak to me on the street?"

Mark: "I am kinda', but I've got to be courteous."

Helen W.: "How's Glee Club getting along, Bill?"

Bill Munger: "Oh, it's a howling success."

("Verily, we believe him!")

Ig.: "Have you seen May?"

Metz: "May who?"

Ig.: "Mayonnaise."

Metz: "No, she was dressing and wouldn't lettuce."

Edwin Cox (trying to think up an idea for a drawing): "I've got a notion in my head——"

Izzy Streeper (thinking of all Edwin has [not] done for the Tatler): "Well, I always said you had water on the brain."

Miss Jepson (to usher): "Aren't there any seats up front, young man?"

Usher (surprisedly): "Yes, ma'm, but—well—you see they're all taken."

HAT you think, we do not know. What you ought to think, we will not say. What you say, we do not care. Remember, we have done our best in accordance with the present high prices.

There are three persons to whom the Tatler Staff is indebted. And we wish to extend our most hearty thanks: Mr. B. C. Richardson, who has kindly acted as advisor and critic; Miss Peck and Miss Wempen, who made our Spring Festival a great success.

Our purpose in the publication of this book was to make it a credit to dear old A. H. S. Whether or not we have succeeded, we leave it to you.
